

Directions for Payment of an Invalidity Pension Benefit

Please print clearly in black ink.

Use this form...

If you are a member of the Police Superannuation Scheme (PSS) and your application for payment of an invalidity pension has been approved.

How to apply

You must fill in all the applicable sections of this form including section 7.

These sections tell the administrator, Mercer, how you want your pension to be paid.

In order to understand your eligibility and any conditions of payment read PSS Fact Sheet 11: Medical discharge benefit for members of the Police Force or PSS Fact Sheet 12: Medical discharge benefit for a former member of the Police Force, STC Fact Sheet 10: Basic Benefit and STC Fact Sheet 20: SANCS Additional Employer Contributions (AEC) Account.

SANCS benefit

As a member of PSS, you are entitled to receive a SANCS benefit. The SANCS benefit includes the basic benefit and, if eligible, the additional employer contribution (AEC) benefit and any Commonwealth Government contributions.

Basic benefit

The basic benefit is a lump sum benefit that is fully paid for by your employer. Further information can be found in STC Fact Sheet 10: Basic Benefit.

Additional employer contributions (AEC) account

Not all PSS members will have an AEC account, as it only applies to members whose employment after 30 June 2013 was subject to NSW Public Sector Wages Policy. Further information can be found in STC Fact Sheet 20: SANCS Additional Employer Contributions (AEC) Account.

Commonwealth Government contributions

Commonwealth Government contributions include the superannuation co-contribution and the Low Income Superannuation Tax Offset (LISTO). Further information can be found on STC Fact Sheet 13: Information about the Commonwealth Government's Superannuation co-contribution and the Low Income Superannuation Tax Offset.

If you have reached your Commonwealth preservation age (between 55 and 60) and retired permanently from the workforce you are entitled to apply to have the SANCS benefit paid directly to you. If you do not meet these requirements, but have two certificates from qualified medical practitioners, stating that you are suffering from a medical condition that means you are likely to be unable to ever be employed in a capacity for which you are reasonably qualified by education, training or experience, you can also apply to have the SANCS benefit paid directly to you.

8. Proof of identity

You may need to provide proof of identity documentation with your application to prove that you are the person entitled to the superannuation benefit.

Proof of identity is only required if your application is for:

- the payment of a pension benefit
- the payment of any part of your benefit as a lump sum payable directly to you – including your basic benefit
- the rollover of any part of your benefit to a Self Managed Super Fund (SMSF).

Note – You are not required to provide proof of identification if you are applying only for a lump sum benefit – and you are applying to rollover your entire benefit (including your basic benefit) to a complying superannuation fund, other than a self managed superannuation fund (SMSF).

If your entire benefit is being transferred to a complying superannuation fund (other than a SMSF), we are able to verify your identity through the Australian Taxation Office (ATO) using their Super TFN Integrity Check (Super TICK) service. In the event that Super TICK is unavailable or if the records we hold do not match the ATO records – identity documents may be required. Identity documents will still be required for rollovers to a SMSF.

See below for acceptable certified documents which must be submitted with your application if required.
