Who should use this form?

Please complete this application form if you:

• are a current or former member of the NSW Police Force who joined before 1 April 1988,

• are or were a member of the Police Superannuation Scheme (PSS) administered under the Police Regulation (Superannuation) Act 1906, and

• want to apply for a permanent impairment benefit resulting from a hurt on duty (HOD) injury sustained on or after 21 November 1979.

This claim can only be made if the medical condition is stable (for injury received before 1 January 2002), or when maximum medical improvement has been reached, ie the condition has been medically stable for the past 3 months and further recovery or deterioration is not expected in the next 12 months (for injury received on or after 1 January 2002).

However, if you have recovered damages in relation to the HOD injury, you are not eligible for a benefit from the PSS for permanent impairment or medical and related treatment. Please note also that if you recover damages for an HOD injury after you receive a benefit from the PSS for that injury, you must repay the PSS benefit.

If you have received a Victims Compensation payment in relation to the HOD injury, any benefit you receive from the PSS for permanent impairment must be reduced by the amount of the Victims Compensation payment.

You will need to disclose damages and Victims Compensation payments you receive if they relate to the same injury as your PSS benefit claim.

Completing this Form

Unless clearly indicated otherwise, you need to provide all the information sought in this Application Form in order that your entitlement to a benefit can be determined. If you do not answer all the questions, you may not have established an entitlement. You should therefore answer all the questions unless clearly stated otherwise. If you cannot answer any of the questions, please explain why or ask for assistance from Allianz (see contact details below). If it is necessary for Allianz to request further information from you, the processing of your application could be delayed.

If you are claiming a pain and suffering benefit, please provide details of the pain and suffering resulting from the permanent impairment or treatment.

24 If you are claiming a pain and suffering benefit, please provide details of the pain and suffering resulting from the permanent impairment or treatment.

24 a) Actual pain (including impact on work, domestic and leisure activities):

b) Distress and anxiety (including impact on work, domestic and leisure activities):

c) Amount claimed for pain and suffering $ which is % of the maximum amount claimable for a most extreme case.

Pain and suffering benefit

You are eligible to be considered for a separate payment for pain and suffering where:

- an injury received between 1 July 1987 and 31 December 2001 results in a permanent loss or losses of 10% or more of the maximum amount for a single loss. The maximum amount for a single loss is $100,000 for an injury received between 1 February 1992 and 31 December 2001, so you would need to be awarded at least $10,000 for a loss to be eligible for a pain and suffering benefit;

- an injury received on or after 1 January 2002 results in a level of whole person impairment of 10% or more (or 15% for a primary psychological injury).
