- ▶ Read the What to do next section at the end of the Form to understand what supporting documents you may need.
- ▶ Send the Form and other supporting documents to:
State Super (SASS)
GPO Box 2181
Melbourne VIC 3001

Notes for applicants

Who can apply?

On the death of a SASS pensioner, their legal spouse or de facto partner (which may include a partner of the same sex) is eligible to apply for payment of a reversionary pension benefit.

Pension payments

Your pension can be paid by direct deposit into your nominated bank, building society or credit union account. However, direct crediting may not be available on all accounts. To confirm this facility is available for your account, please check with your financial institution.

Pension overpayments

Important Note: The following is only applicable if you have been informed that there is an outstanding debt payable to SASS from the deceased's estate.

Under the legislation, if there was an amount of pension overpaid to the deceased that has not been repaid from the estate to SASS, the Trustee is able to recoup the overpayment by making a deduction from any arrears of pension payable to you from SASS.

Unless you inform us in writing that you do not agree with this proposal, the overpayment amount will be deducted from the pension arrears payable to you at the time your pension is processed.

Please notify us in writing if you wish to make other arrangements to repay the overpaid pension amount.

Is tax payable on death benefits?

Generally no tax is payable on SASS death benefits if you are aged 60 or over when the benefit is received, or your spouse was aged 60 or over at the date of death. Some tax may be payable if your pension is more than $118,750 per annum.

For more information about the payment of tax and death benefits, please see STC Fact Sheet 3: Taxation.

Providing your Tax File Number

Under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth), STC, the trustee of SASS and SANCS, is authorised to collect your Tax File Number (TFN), which may only be used for lawful purposes. These purposes may change in the future as a result of legislative change. It is not an offence not to quote your TFN, however, if you do not quote your TFN, tax may be deducted from any benefit paid to you at a higher rate than would otherwise be the case.

If you need help with this form

8. Proof of identity

You may need to prove your identity by providing certified[†] proof of identity documentation or electronic verification information with your application to prove that you are the person to whom the superannuation entitlements belong.

You can either provide certified proof of identity documents that must be posted to us (see below) or alternatively, you can provide the information in Section 9 - Electronic verification, which will enable us to verify your information electronically.

The following certified documents can be accepted:

Either

One of the following certified documents:

- Current Australian State or Territory drivers licence containing a photograph of the person, or
- Australian Passport, or
- Current card issued under a State or Territory law for the purpose of providing a person's age containing a photograph of the person, or
- Current foreign passport or similar travel document containing a photograph and the signature of the person*

OR

One certified document from each of the following groups:

Group 1

- An Australian birth certificate or birth extract issued by a State or Territory
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Current pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits

Group 2

- Notice issued by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory government within the preceding 12 months that records the provision of financial benefits to you, i.e., a letter from Centrelink.
- Notice issued by the Australian Taxation Office within the past twelve months that contains your name and residential address and records an amount payable to or by you, i.e., your last tax assessment.

- Notice issued by a local government body or utilities provider within the past three months showing the provision of services to you and your current residential address, i.e., water, gas or electricity bill, rates notice.

* Documents not written in English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

Change of name

Make sure that proof of change of name is also provided if your current name is not the same as the name on these documents, e.g. Change of name certificate, or deed poll document. If your name has changed on marriage, a marriage certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages is required; ceremonial marriage certificates are not acceptable.

[†] Certified means that all copied pages of original proof of identity documents or change of name documents have been certified as true copies by an individual approved to do so. Persons who are authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copies and make sure both documents are identical, then make sure that all copies are certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy' followed by the individual's signature, printed name, qualification and date.

If you are in Australia

The following persons are eligible to certify copies of original documents:

- Australia Post Permanent Employee or Agent (who is currently employed with the post office and has at least two continuous years of service or is in charge of supplying postal services to the public)
