Use this form ...

- ▶ if you are a member of the Police Superannuation Scheme (PSS), and
- ▶ you are applying for an invalidity benefit, and
- ▶ the NSW Police Service has confirmed your infirmity as either hurt on duty or not hurt on duty.

Before you fill in this form

Please read PSS Fact Sheet 5: Invalidity retirement (medical discharge), STC Fact Sheet 3: Taxation, STC Fact Sheet 10: Basic Benefit and STC Fact Sheet 20: SANCS Additional Employer Contributions (AEC) Account.

Notes for applicants

Options for payment of benefits

If your application is granted you will receive either a lump sum or a pension depending on your circumstances.

- If the NSW Police Service has confirmed your infirmity as hurt on duty, you will receive a pension.
- If the NSW Police Service has confirmed your infirmity as not duty related:
 - if you have been in the service for less than 20 years you will receive a lump sum, or
 - if you have been in the service for 20 years or more you will receive a pension.

How to apply

You must fill in sections 1 and 10 of this Form, together with the other sections relevant to you.

These sections tell the administrator, Mercer, and the Police Superannuation Advisory Committee:

- what they need to know to determine the type of benefit and the extent of the benefit payable, and
- what you want to do with any benefit.

SANCS benefit

As a member of PSS, you are entitled to receive a SANCS benefit. The SANCS benefit includes the basic benefit and, if eligible, the additional employer contribution (AEC) benefit and any Commonwealth Government contributions.

Basic benefit

The basic benefit is a lump sum benefit that is fully paid for by your employer. Further information can be found in STC Fact Sheet 10: Basic Benefit.

Additional employer contributions (AEC) account

Not all PSS members will have an AEC account, as it only applies to members whose employment after 30 June 2013 was subject to NSW Public Sector Wages Policy. Further information can be found in STC Fact Sheet 20: SANCS Additional Employer Contributions (AEC) Account.

Commonwealth Government contributions

Commonwealth Government contributions include the superannuation co-contribution and the Low Income Superannuation Tax Offset (LISTO). Further information can be found on STC Fact Sheet 13: Information about the Commonwealth Government's Superannuation co-contribution and the Low Income Superannuation Tax Offset.

When can the SANCS benefit be paid directly to you?

If you have reached your Commonwealth preservation age (between age 55 and 60) and retired permanently from the workforce you are entitled to apply to have the SANCS benefit paid directly to you. If you do not meet these requirements, but have two certificates from qualified medical practitioners, stating that you are suffering from a medical condition that means you are likely to be unable to ever be employed in a capacity for which you are reasonably qualified by education, training or experience, you can also apply to have the SANCS benefit paid directly to you.
