

Application for Early Release of a Benefit on Grounds of Severe Financial Hardship

Notes for applicants

Who can apply

Members of:

State Authorities Superannuation Scheme (SASS), State Superannuation Scheme (SSS), Police Superannuation Scheme (PSS) and State Authorities Non-contributory Superannuation Scheme (SANCS).

If you are a former SASS, SSS or PSS member, you may apply for payment from your deferred benefit.

If you are a former member and do not have a deferred or preserved benefit in any of the STC schemes, your deferred SANCS basic benefit would have been transferred (rolled over) to Aware Super.

Important note: Your application can only be considered if you provide written consent to a reduction in your scheme benefits to offset the early release — see Effect on benefit entitlements.

Cases for applying

There are only two cases for making this application. Conditions apply for each.

Case 1

You are applying for early release of part of your superannuation benefit on the basis that:

- ▶ you have received Commonwealth income support payments for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks and are still receiving those payments,
- ▶ you have a letter from a Commonwealth department or agency (such as Centrelink†) confirming those payments,
- ▶ you are currently unable to meet reasonable and immediate family living expenses*, and
- ▶ you have completed a Financial hardship declaration.

Case 2

You are applying for early release of all of the superannuation benefit that is available to you, on the basis that:

- ▶ you have reached your preservation age (see your Annual Statement),
- ▶ you are not gainfully employed (part-time or full-time),
- ▶ you have received Commonwealth income support payments for a cumulative period of 39 weeks since reaching your Commonwealth preservation age, and
- ▶ you have a letter from a Commonwealth department or agency (such as Centrelink†) confirming those payments.

If you do not meet these sets of conditions, you may still be able to apply on compassionate grounds. Please contact Customer Service for more information.

†Letter from Centrelink

Centrelink has developed special letters to accompany this application.

You must advise Centrelink of the reason you are requesting proof of payments so they can:

- ▶ issue you with the correct letter, and
- ▶ advise you whether the particular payments you receive qualify as income support payments under the Commonwealth's superannuation rules.

*Reasonable and immediate family living expenses

The Commonwealth has issued guidelines as to what are reasonable and immediate family living expenses and the extent of assistance that may be provided. Examples of the types of expenses that may qualify include mortgage payments, rent debts, credit debts, health costs, schooling, household expenses and accumulated debts. Business expenses and anticipated future expenses do not satisfy the test.

If you need help with this form

Contact Customer Service between 8:30 am and 5:30 pm AEST from Mon–Fri on DB 1300 130 094 or SASS 1300 130 095 or SSS 1300 130 096 or PSS 1300 130 097 or email enquiries@stc.nsw.gov.au

What benefits are payable

The actual amount that may be approved for release will be determined by the scheme administrator on the basis of your application.

The amount released cannot exceed the value of your accrued withdrawal (resignation) benefit. In the case of a deferred benefit, this is the immediate lump sum (see your annual statement). There are also monetary limits under Commonwealth legislation — see section 1 of the Financial hardship declaration part of this form.

Tax payable

Benefits released early are generally subject to higher (though still concessional) rates of tax. The tax payable will depend on the taxable and tax free components of your benefit and your age. Please see STC Fact Sheet 3: Taxation, for details of the Commonwealth tax rules regarding the amount of tax payable on superannuation benefit payments at certain ages.

Mercer will calculate how much of your before tax benefit should be released to provide the after tax amount that is approved to relieve the financial hardship. Under Case 1 the maximum before tax amount available for release in any one year is $10,000. Under Case 2 there is no annual limit.

Effect on benefit entitlements

The early release of part of your superannuation benefit will reduce the amount of the scheme benefits you will receive in the future.

A deferred benefit will be reduced when the early benefit payment is made.

If you are a current contributor, a debt account adjusted for interest will be created. The accumulated debt will be deducted from your benefit when it is either deferred in the scheme or is paid to you e.g. at retirement age.

A debt will be deducted from the SANCS entitlement first. The reduction of a pension benefit will be calculated using actuarial factors.

Details of your debt account or deferred benefit reduction, as appropriate, will be shown on your annual statement.

Tax File Number

If you have not already given us your Tax File Number (TFN), your benefit may be taxed at a higher rate than is necessary.

The Member Area of the website and your last Annual Statement shows if your TFN has been supplied. If not, then it can be supplied via the Member Area of the website or by contacting Customer Service and following the prompts. Alternatively, you can request a Tax File Number Collection Form to complete and send it to us along with this Form.

4. Statutory declaration

Take this form to a Justice of the Peace or a solicitor and sign this section in front of them. They will ask you to identify yourself (unless they have known you for at least 12 months) before they complete the certification section below.

Statutory declaration

Oaths Act 1900 (NSW) Eighth schedule

I, the undersigned (please print your full name)

in the State of New South Wales, do solemnly and sincerely declare that all of the information provided by me in connection with this application is true and correct.

I also declare that I do not have the financial capacity to meet the weekly living expenses I have listed and that I do not have any assets (apart from my home) which could (reasonably and realistically speaking) be used or sold to cover this gap.

I also declare that the amount I am requesting to be released is necessary to meet these expenses.

I also declare that I have read and understood the information relevant to this application as outlined in STC Fact Sheet 2: Early release of superannuation benefit on grounds of severe financial hardship.

I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the provisions of the Oaths Act 1900.

Proof of identity

You will need to provide certified† documentation with your application form to prove your entitlement to the superannuation benefits.

The following certified documents must be provided with your application form:

Either

One of the following certified documents:

- Current Australian State or Territory drivers licence containing a photograph of the person, or
- Australian Passport, or
- Current card issued under a State or Territory law for the purpose of providing a person's age containing a photograph of the person, or
- Current foreign passport or similar travel document containing a photograph and the signature of the person*

OR

One certified document from each of the following groups:

Group 1

- An Australian birth certificate or birth extract issued by a State or Territory
- Citizenship certificate issued by the Commonwealth
- Current pension card issued by Centrelink that entitles the person to financial benefits

Group 2

- Notice issued by the Commonwealth or a State or Territory government within the preceding 12 months that records the provision of financial benefits to you, i.e., a letter from Centrelink.
- Notice issued by the Australian Taxation Office within the past twelve months that contains your name and residential address and records an amount payable to or by you, i.e., your last tax assessment.
- Notice issued by a local government body or utilities provider within the past three months showing the provision of services to you and your current residential address, i.e., water, gas or electricity bill, rates notice.

* Documents not written in English must be accompanied by an English translation prepared by an accredited translator.

Change of name

Make sure that proof of change of name is also provided if your current name is not the same as the name on these documents, e.g. Change of name certificate, or deed poll document.

If your name has changed on marriage, a marriage certificate issued by the Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages is required; ceremonial marriage certificates are not acceptable.

† Certified means that all copied pages of original proof of identity documents or change of name documents have been certified as true copies by an individual approved to do so. Persons who are authorised to certify documents must sight the original and the copies and make sure both documents are identical, then make sure that all copies are certified as true copies by writing or stamping 'certified true copy' followed by the individual's signature, printed name, qualification and date.

If you are in Australia

The following persons are eligible to certify copies of original documents:

- Australia Post Permanent Employee or Agent (who is currently employed with the post office and has at least two continuous years of service or is in charge of supplying postal services to the public)
